

PERSPECTIVE IS EMPHASIZED BY DR. HIXSON

NEEDED IN MAKING DECISIONS AND FORMING OPINIONS

Speaking to the academically-gowned members of the senior class at DePauw's Cap and Gown chapel yesterday, Dr. Jerome C. Hixson emphasized the need for perspective in making decisions or forming opinions.

Dr. Hixson, who is professor of English and dean of chapters at DePauw, was chosen by the seniors to deliver the annual address in Meharry Hall. He was introduced by class president Clark L. Wagner, Hammond.

"Truth seldom is so simple as to come from a mere answer of 'yes' or 'no,'" Dr. Hixson warned; rather, there is a need to explore all points of view before the real facts may be known.

There is no place, he continued, where people are so concerned with ideas as on a college campus; but to be able to determine a goal and to form realistic judgments requires other points of reference.

At DePauw, Dr. Hixson said, we have tried to teach you facts, but we also have attempted to teach you "navigation"—that faculty which will enable you to gain the proper perspective.

"If you succeed," he concluded, "so do we, as your teachers; and we will be looking over your shoulder to see you check your points of view."

IN THE GOOD OLD DAYS

THE STORM—1868 — "Wednesday afternoon, about half past four o'clock, a terrific storm broke out at Terre Haute and traveled eastward through this county and beyond Indianapolis, at the rate of seventy-five miles per hour. Its track through the county was on a line immediately south of Greencastle. We first hear of it at the farm of A. D. Hamrick, Jesse McPeeters, where it did some damage. From there it passed through the farms of James Torr, Sr., James Torr, Jr., Chris. Landis, Perry Layton, William Albright, Christian Miller, Miller Black, D. C. Donohue, T. Hawkins, Mr. Brooks, William Peck, T. V. Peck, Col. John Osborn, R. B. Chennoweth, Sam Browning, Dr. A. C. Stevenson, Hannah Butler, J. Hurst, N. H. Showalter, Mrs. E. Moore, Milton Sellers, John Hammond, W. Hogue, J. H. Farmer, Peter Ruark, Sam Bachelder, Nat. Hammond, H. Bowen, J. C. Reat, T. and J. Ruark, James Denny, Mr. Buis and Mr. Burgess, A. S. Bryant, A. Burton, H. Hunter, H. Buntin and Mr. Christy. On all these farms the timber was almost entirely destroyed and but very little fencing left standing. The country through which the storm passed is about five miles in width, though the greatest destruction was confined to a track not more than one mile wide. Those who have visited it say that it is impossible for one who had not seen it to imagine the extent of destruction of valuable property, mostly timber. Trees over three feet in diameter were twisted off and hurled into the air like twigs. The loss in timber alone in the county is estimated at $100,000.—The depot at Greencastle Junction was torn to pieces and almost demolished. T. V. Peck, Mr. Brooks and Hannah Butler each lost the roofs of their houses, and John O'Brien's barn was torn down and two horses killed. T. Hawkins lost several cattle and his barn was somewhat damaged, and Dr. Stevenson lost four head of cattle. N. H. Showalter's barn was damaged, and Peter Ruark's barn was destroyed. Mr. Burgess lost some horses, and several of Sam Brown's horses have not been seen since the storm, and are supposed to have gone off in a whirlwind. Jefferson Crawley had four mules killed. For the amount of damage, and the extent of the country passed over, it is the severest storm ever to hit Putnam County. During the time, the rain poured down in torrents, flooding the entire country." (May 13, 1868)

WIFE BEATER—"William" gave his wife a beating Sunday morning, injuring her so severely that a physician was called to attend her. He afterwards attended church looking as serene as though nothing had occurred. Both parties are over seventy years old." (1868)

PUTNAMVILLE NEWS—Mrs. Dr. Overstreet and children spent Christmas week at Dr. McNutt's. (1882)

DANGEROUS ELECTRICITY—"Twenty five homes were set on fire in Philadelphia last week by electric light wires, and it is probably that the authorities of that city will order the discontinuance of that system of street lighting." (1882)

TELEPHONE—The erection of the telephone in this city has been postponed on account of the number of cities ahead of us. The workmen are at Crawfordsville now and will probably come to this city in a few days. There are thirty-eight subscribers here, most of whom are out in the eastern part of the city among the private residences." (1882)

COMMITTEE APPROVES OLD AGE INCREASES

WASHINGTON, May 22 (UP)—The House Ways & Means Committee has paved the way for prompt House approval of most of President Eisenhower's proposals for increased benefits and broader coverage under the federal old age insurance program.

The committee gave its approval Friday to Mr. Eisenhower's recommendation for benefit increases ranging from $5 to $23.50 a month for retired workers. It previously had voted to extend old age insurance coverage to farmers, doctors, lawyers, dentists and others as the President had proposed.

Committee work on the Social Security measure—one of the major points in Mr. Eisenhower's legislative program—is expected to be completed next week. The House may consider the bill the first week in June.

SENIORS HEAR SPLENDID TALK BY DR. JOME

DEPAUW'S 1954 GRADS HOLD ANNUAL SENIOR SESSION FRIDAY EVE

The best Senior Dinner meeting any class has held at DePauw University was what everyone said about the annual 1954 senior class dinner of Friday evening in the Union Building. More than 300 were seated in the big room which was a beautiful sight with its long rows of tables beautifully decorated.

Robert Crouch, Alumni Secretary, was in charge. It was the first glimpse the Seniors have of the Association at work and into which they are being placed with their graduation from DePauw on June 6.

At the speakers table were Robert Fribley, Miss Lucinda Rohm, named permanent secretary of the class, Mrs. Hiram Jome, Mrs. Hiram, Mrs. Willis B. Conner, Mrs. Crouch in addition to Robert Fribley, who spoke for the Association, Mr. Conner, Dr. Humbert and Clark Wagner who presented the Old Gold Goblet on behalf of the Seniors, and Dr. Jome who received an ovation at the close of his address.

Mr. Fribley welcomed the seniors into the Alumni Association. He is pastor of the Methodist church at Richmond and president of the Association. He was graduated in 1935.

The seniors selected their faculty speaker and this year it was Dr. Jome and a lively talk on "The Part of the Blanket Hanging Over." He tied his talk into his experience at Great Lakes Naval Training Station one cold night when he didn't have enough blanket hanging over.

He said everyone should have some reserve, which represents the part of the blanket hanging over, if one is to keep comfortable. He urged the seniors to be interested and referred in numerous ways to his teaching experiences which only the students know anything about.

He urged the students while in college to take some useless course, because times change and in the years ahead, conditions change and what proves to be useless now might be of great value in the future and it would mean more of the blanket extending over. He urged them always to have plenty of margin, regardless of what their efforts and if they have a margin, they will come out on top.

Dr. Humbert made one of his famous short talks. He said he felt sure this class would continue the tradition of other classes and that they would make good leaders of the future. He guaranteed the seniors of 1954 will be a good investment both spiritually and morally for the University.

Clark Wagner, president of the senior class presented the Old Gold Goblet to Willis Conner and recited some of his accomplishments of the past. He is public relations counsel for the Fletcher National Bank as well as a vice president. He said he is convinced public relations have taken a new turn at this time and it behooves one to know what people are thinking. He believes the type of young folks being turned out by colleges like DePauw are the kind needed and he assured the seniors he was proud to have them join the great group of alumni of the university who have gone into the world to make their mark in the past.

EXTRA!

GUATEMALA CITY — May 22 — (UP) — Army troops closed in today on "foreign saboteurs" wanted for attempting to blow up a train carrying newly-imported arms and ammunition to the capital's arsenal.

"The Army is following them closely and it is expected that they will be captured soon," Interior Minister August Charnau MacDonald said.

MacDonald said the agents "from another country" fled toward the border of Honduras after killing a Guatemalan soldier and wounding three others in a machine gun battle that followed the abortive sabotage attempt.

WASHINGTON, May 22 — (UP)—Administration leaders today abandoned, at least for this year, President Eisenhower's proposal to let 18-year olds vote after the Senate received a crushing Senate defeat.

Only 34 senators lined up for the proposed constitutional amendment Friday against 24 opposed far short of the necessary two-thirds vote. State rights-minded Southerners voted heavily against the measure.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 22 — (UP)—West Lafayette Waterworks, Inc., asked the Indiana Public Service Commission late Friday for permission to increase rates 50 cents per month.

The utility, which said its present rate schedule has been in effect since 1947, asked that its minimum rate be boosted from $1.50 to $2.00 monthly.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, May 22 (UP)—Students at Wabash College have changed their minds about Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) in the past two years.

A poll by the Wabash student newspaper showed 67 per cent would not support the controversial senator if he were running for re-election. The newspaper said editorially it was almost a complete reversal of campus opinion since October, 1952, when 55 per cent approved McCarthy.

The poll of 353 of the school's 481 students also showed that 65 per cent were in favor of sending American troops to Indo-China as a last resort to prevent it from falling to the communists.

GENEVA, May 22—(UP)—South Korea has accepted the big power compromise proposal on all-Korean unification elections, informed sources said today.

South Korean Foreign Minister Pyun Yung Tai was expected to announce his government's decision before the day is over, the sources said.

Sixteen nations which fought side by side in the Korean War framed the new proposal, which calls for U. N.-supervised elections throughout Korea. Only a change in the South Korean constitution will be needed to carry out the plan.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., May 22—(UP)—Wallace W. Merrick, 34, Sunday School treasurer at the First Baptist Church, today faced a grand larceny charge in the theft of a $1,000 diamond ring from a home in which he was working.

Police said Merrick first was questioned about the $2,900 Easter Sunday robbery of Alfred Ross, church treasurer, by a gunman who accosted Ross on the steps of the church.

G. O. P., DEMO CONVENTIONS NEXT MONTH

STATE SESSIONS SCHEDULED BY BOTH POLITICAL PARTIES

INDIANAPOLIS, May 22—(UP)—Both political parties laid the groundwork today for state conventions next month where they will nominate 10 Statehouse officials.

Various convention committee members were appointed, and a joint Democrat-Republican news parley was tentatively scheduled for next mid-week to plan coverage of the event during the fourth week of June.

The Democratic convention will be Tuesday, June 22, and the Republican convention, Friday, June 25. The parties share the expense and planning for the Coliseum facilities.

Terms of half the 20 elected Statehouse officials will expire late this year or early in 1955. Republicans now hold all those Statehouse posts.

On the administrative side, nominations will be made for secretary of state, treasurer, auditor, superintendent of public instruction and Supreme court clerk. Terms of the governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general and Supreme court reporter do not expire until 1957.

One of the five Supreme court judgeships is up for nomination and four of the six Appellate court seats.

Secretary of State Crawford Parker, Treasurer John Peters, Clerk Thomas Williams, and School Supt. Wilbur Young have announced for renomination. All are aligned with the Jenner-Capehart faction of the GOP, and Republicans are speculating whether Governor Craig will field candidates against them.

Auditor Frank Mills cannot seek another term, and Supreme Court Judge Dan Flanagan said he will not.

Appellate court judges whose terms expire are Donald Brown, Wilbur Royle, Harry Crumpeker and Harold Achor.

There will be 2,885 delegates to the Republican convention and 2,091 to the Democratic, the number determined by the last vote for secretary of state.

Republicans named Craig as keynote speaker at their convention, Thomas Bath of South Bend as temporary chairman and Mills as permanent chairman.

Other GOP convention officers and committee members appointed by State Chairman Alvin Cast: Wilbur Grant, Indianapolis, secretary; James Knapp, Knightstown, parliamentarian; Jack McIntyre, Bloomfield, sergeant-at-arms.

NEW MONASTERY

INDIANAPOLIS, May 22 — (UP)—Eight Indianapolis nuns of the Carmelite Monastery will move to Reno, Nev., a city famed for gambling and divorces, to establish a new monastery this fall.

It will be the second branch opened by the Indianapolis order. The first was at Terre Haute. The nuns will take over a building formerly housing a chiropractic clinic at Reno.

It's Blackwood On Bridge

Bidder Takes Into Account Partner's Conversation

Mr. Meek is the tightest bidder in the game. If you can ever beat him as much as two tricks, you've got yourself a sensational result.

Facet of his game should not be overlooked when he is your partner. It should have a definite bearing on your own bidding style.

Mr. Dale never fails to keep this in mind. In today's deal he was a shade short of the requirements for a jump to three no trump on the second round of bidding, but he could think of dozens of hands Mr. Meek might hold which would give him a good play for three no trump, and on which Mr. Meek would probably pass over a two no trump rebid.

One word of caution — don't stretch your own bidding too far because if Mr. Meek gets the idea you are pressing your cards to make up for his conservatism, he will only tighten up all the more and might stop bidding altogether.

Mr. Dale had to play carefully to make today's contract. He got the queen of spades opening and saw that he had nine tricks if he could win four diamonds.

He took the first trick with the king of spades and laid down the jack of diamonds. Mr. Champion covered with the king, the correct play, but Mr. Dale did not let this apparent good fortune go to his head.

If he had won with dummy's ace, Mr. Abel's holding would have stopped the suit and, with no other entries to the board, he would have won just three diamonds—not enough to make the contract.

Showing rare restraint, Mr. Dale permitted the king of diamonds to win trick two. His patience was rewarded when this enabled him to win four diamonds and make the hand.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Anna Skelton, wife of John Skelton, who passed away one year ago today, May 22, 1953.

Brightly the stars are shining On a grave not far away.

We watched a life that slowly faded,

Growing more frail each day.

Somewhere beyond the sunset Where loveliness never dies,

She lives in a land of glory, Midst the gold and blue of the skies

And we who had cherished and loved her

And whose passing brought such sad tears,

Will cherish her memories always

To brighten our drifting years.

Sadly missed by husband and daughter. P

LOOKING... AT LIFE

By Erich Brandeis

Today I shall speak on a subject about which I know absolutely nothing.

Which is no more than a good many writers and speakers do most of the time.

The subject is women's clothes.

At the present moment, quite a few fashion editors, as well as store buyers from all over the world, are in Paris looking over the fall fashions and telling their readers and customers what is going to be the style, or the "mode de rigueur," as they call it in the more expensive establishments and publications.

Our American women—or all women, as far as that is concerned—have very peculiar ideas about what they should wear.

A Paris designer, such as the famous Gabrielle Chanel, for instance, might say that you ladies should wear skirts 10 inches above the knees next fall.

Mind you, this is only an hypothetical case. I do NOT tell you that Chanel says that kind of skirt is going to be in style next fall.

But if she did, the 10-inch-above-the-knees skirt it would be. Gabrielle Chanel has said so.

Next fall, then, we would see millions of women, short, tall, fat, lean, all wearing these abbreviated skirts.

Then Mr. Frederic or some other famous hat designer might come along and tell you that big picture hats with goose feathers arranged in the shape of a chrysanthemum will be IT, come autumn. Fifty million women, women with round faces, with oval faces, with square faces, with two faces, will be wearing goose-feather decorated hats.

An illustrious costume jewelry designer comes next. Let us say his name is M. Jacques Guinberg of Paris. He may decree that all women must wear cowbells earrings.

Cowbells for earrings it is and, frankly, they couldn't look much worse than those atrocious ear ornaments our women are wearing right now.

Of all the rackets in the world I think the women's clothes racket is one of the worst. Unless it is the men's clothes racket.

Last year I had myself a couple of expensive suits made. I felt that my sex appeal was waning.

Both of those suits were double-breasted, of course. The well-dressed man HAD to wear double-breasted suits.

The other day I wore one of the suits to a cocktail party. A lovely young thing walked up to me and said:

"I like the stuff you write. But you look so quaint. Nobody, but nobody wears double-breasted suits any more."

She walked away and I asked a friend about her crack.

"She is right," said my friend. "Everybody wears SINGLE-breasted suits this year."

I rushed home and went to bed, steeped in shame and embarrassment.

But before I did, I went to my closet and took out a brand-new last year's hat. It was BROAD-BRIMMED, when everybody knows that men are wearing very NARROW-BRIMMED hats this year. I threw the hat into the garbage can.

Although I really don't think the garbage collector (or any really SMART man or woman) cares what is "de rigueur" as long as it is becoming.

"TRUSS"!

LEARN HOW — NOW! (For Reducible Rupture)

W. L. POWELL
7816 East St. Joe
Indianapolis, Ind.

If your rupture is larger this year than last, then you must be wearing the wrong kind of truss. Perhaps one with a knob that causes the opening to enlarge. Don't delay until your rupture becomes irreducible. The Dobbs pad is of the suction cup type and fits over the rupture like the palm of your hand, thereby may be worn with complete security and comfort. It does not spread, expand, strut the lower abdominal muscles. Prevents rupture from becoming larger. It is different from and superior to other trusses. It has no belt or straps to bind. See on date below.

TRUSS EXPERT WILL BE IN THE COMMERCIAL HOTEL ON TUESDAY, MAY 25TH, 9:30 A. M. TO 12 NOON. COME IN FOR A FREE DEMONSTRATION. NO OBLIGATION TO BUY. RESULTS GUARANTEED. SEE POWELL.

DePauw Sports

A tight five-hitter by Evansville's Bud George kept the DePauw Tigers at bay yesterday as the Purple Aces posted a 7-4 victory on Blackstock Field.

By losing the Old Gold nine dropped to a 5-10 record for the season and to a 4-7 in the Indiana College Conference. It was the Aces' fourth ICC win in nine starts.

Al Phillips relieved Pharr on the mound for DePauw in the second and took the loss.

The Tigers jumped into a 3-0 lead in the first inning, scoring all three runs on two hits, a walk, and two errors, but Evansville matched that in the second, then added two in the fourth and two in the fifth.

Big blow in the fifth frame was Corky Thompson's homer with a man on base. George helped his own cause with three singles.

DePauw's last run came in the ninth on singles by Baumgardner and Nick Osmer with a stolen base sandwiched in between the safeties.

LEFT ALONE?

Two little girls left alone! It sounds like the beginning of a sad story.

But look again. There are certainly no tears. There is a comfortable home; and pretty clothes.

But these children have been given a great deal more than the ordinary comforts of life. There in the older child's hand is a book, "The Story of Jesus."

How reassuring to see that they have been given the advantages of a Christian training. Somehow all doubt has been removed from our minds. We feel that these little girls will be safe—not only during this one evening, but through their entire lives.

All of us want our children to be shielded from life's hardships and temptations, but we can guarantee no such protection. Our surest course is that we rear them in a Christian atmosphere, sending them to Daily Vacation Church School and taking them to the services of the Church regularly. Then, and then only, will we know that we have done everything in our power for their future success, happiness and salvation.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
